FOREWORD

To the students of the West Side High School, we present the 1951 SUCCESSUS. We have compiled it with the intentions of giving you a clearer picture of the activities, administration, classes, and athletics during our Senior year.

SCHOOL SONG

To Union High, the school we love,
We sing a song of praise,
To all her many victories won,
And high her banners raise.
To glorify our Alma Mater,
Work for her with zest,
To show to all the world around
That Union High is best.

So let's join in the cheer
While we're all gathered here,
Cheer for old U. C. High
Rah! Rah!
We are ready to fight
For the red and the white,
Dear old U. C. High.
For her honor and fame
For her glorious name,
We will stand every loyal man.
So cheer, cheer, the gang's all here,
All out for U. C. High!

The time has come for the Class of 1951 to say farewell to West Side High School. This thought is constantly on our minds as we bring to a close our last high school year. We are preparing to go out into the world with nothing to remind us of our high school days but memories. . . memories of our past activities and good times. . . holding our class elections for the last time under the sponsorship of Mr. Paul. . . helping to get the freshmen off to a roaring start on their high school career. . . trying to sell all our schedule pencils before Mr. Harader passed out the free schedules. . . having charge of the concession stand at the basketball games. . . sending the field of dramatics into a state of uproar with our Senior Class Play. . . trying to sell air cushions to the tired and weary students and teachers. . . trying to sell our home-made candy at the chili supper before we ate all of it. . . taking part in our last musical contests. . . giving the Senior-Junior. . . taking part in the class-day activities. . . always holding dear the memories of our Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises;. . . . and we hope that as we bid adieu to all our past activities and to the students and teachers at West Side High School, that we can leave behind a glorious and lasting memory of the Class of 1951.

Prophecy

Hollywood, California

Ferris Parker, of MGM movie studios, and Sarah Garver, make up artist for Paramount, hop into Ferris' s new Cadillac convertible and take a trip around the city to see some of their old classmates. First they hunt up Anne Jefferis who has recently married Charles Boyer and then Martha Kreider who is about to fly to Muncie for a vacation. On the corner of Hollywood and Vine they happen to bump into Bucky Ashley who is trying to sell air cushions to tired producers.

Next they stop at Ciro's where they find Rodney DeBolt who is jitter-bugging with Ginger Rogers and Phil Rosenbush waltzing with Jeanne Crain. In the corner, sitting at a dark table, is Marilyn Edwards, the widow of Ezio Pinza, and consoling her is Peg Harlow, the great opera star from New York City. Merna Suitts is sitting in the limelight as she has been hired to redecorate Ciro's. Taking Hedda Hopper's place, as she has recently retired, is Nancee Lephart, pounding away on her typewriter and writing up the new song team sensations from Union City--Donna Marshall, Joanne Schricker, Kay West and Lois Shockney.

Leaving Ciro's and driving to the night school for Paramount Studios they find Elvin Baker and Paul Birznieks training along with Sue Ann Wampler for parts in their new picture. It seems that Paul and Elvin have taken Abbott and Costello's place and Sue Ann is training to understudy Shirley Temple.

They have just thrown Jim Shifflet out. He was to have starred in a new series of Westerns but his bowed legs made him fall off his horse. Just as they leave, they bump into John Leaver, who has come to the studio to talk to the manager about a $1,000,000,000.00 loan. After speaking to him, hastily they drive away.

Crossing the Golden Gate Bridge they see Duane Yoder sitting astride one of the huge cables swinging a paint brush. On the other side of the bridge they see the Phyllis Snyder Memorial Hospital, for it seems that she has discovered a new cure for love-sickness.

They drive up to the entrance of the Municipal Fieldhouse where they find Gail Bratton managing his own bowling alley and poor Freddy Burris still setting pins.

Opening another door they find that they have arrived in time for the 1974 Olympics, which are being held in Hollywood this year. They see the new basketball champs just leaving the floor and among them Goethe Chambers and Carner Cox with ''Shur Shot'' Don Huffman, as coach, carrying the cup. It is being announced that the roller skating champion of the world is about to enter, and who else is it but our own Jean Key.

They enter Ferris's convertible once again and as they are driving they hear a news girl, Fern Durham, calling headlines. She tells them that Lowell Ullery, Gene Summers, and Darrell Tipple are in jail for kidnapping three beautiful blondes, and also that Ronnie Van Vickle, the famous maestro, who has just finished the "Unfinished Symphony", is to appear at the Hollywood Bowl in the evening.

They stop at a hot dog stand, and across the street they see Bob Geyer and Roger Resor having a heated discussion over a pair of crumpled fenders. Roger is looking especially lovely as he has just come from Harriet Grindle and Sherron Downing's beauty parlor for men.

A short time later they enter the parking lot at the Hollywood Bowl. Purchasing tickets they recognize Stanley Hines who has just turned from talking to Eilene Hindsley who is selling programs.

Upon reaching their seats they see on the stage many beautiful girls in bathing suits, among whom is Judy Hollinger. Jim Fulk enters and they find that he is to be the judge of this bathing beauty contest.

When the program is over they drive home through the park and see Jim Davis and "Bobo" Evans sleeping on the grass. Look out now! Here comes Chief of Police Jim Leahey.

Since Ferris has forgotten his license he isn't too anxious to meet up with a cop; so he and Sarah drive home after a long and hilarious day.

On September 27, 1950, we became the proud owners of our class rings which we ordered early last spring.

The members of the class are well represented in band, orchestra, mixed chorus, and girls' glee club. Many of the boys are members of intramural and the Wildcat and Kitten teams.

Our class is under the excellent sponsorship of Miss Anna C. Yost, who has cooperated in helping to plan for the selling of Christmas door-hangers, Wildcat sweat shirts, and U. H. S. socks.

We close the year with our Junior-Senior reception and our class play in May.

Early in October we received our class sweaters, royal blue and grey, trimmed in gold.

On November 4, the Sophomore Class held the "Harvest Hop" which entertained the entire high school. We also helped the Mothers' Club with decorations and a section of the program for the Christmas Party.

We are proud to have many of our members participating in band, orchestra, mixed chorus and girls' glee club, baseball, basketball, track, bowling, and G. A. A.

OUR MUSIC ORGANIZATIONS

The music department opened the 1950-51 school year under the direction of Mr. Robert Dwiggins. On October 10, a public concert was given by the band the mixed chorus.

Late in October, Mr. Dwiggins resigned to accept a position in the Muncie Public Schools. Mr. William Hatt was hired to succeed Mr. Dwiggins. Mr. Hatt was formerly employed at Zionsville High School.

The mixed chorus and the orchestra participated in the annual Christmas program.

The music department planned a busy spring. Many students participated in the district solo and ensemble contest at Ball State Teachers College. The winners here advanced to the state contest at Terre Haute. For the first time, no district band contest was held. All organizations went directly to the state contest at Cambridge City. An operetta was planned, also, by the combined departments.

The school year was brought to a close by the participation of the orchestra in the annual commencement exercises.
